A Marching Song

ESTELLE GRAY - NISCHA LHEVINNE

March Rhythm

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked 'March Rhythm' and 'mf'. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second measure with the lyrics 'Now, cross the sea is a Bug - a - boo;'. The score includes dynamic markings such as p (piano), mf (mezzo-forte), and ff (fortissimo). The lyrics continue across several lines, ending with 'call, ring-ing clear thru the land. Ask-ing that we for her lib-er - ties sake'. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support throughout, with various chordal textures and rhythmic patterns.

Now, cross the sea is a Bug - a - boo; Its Aut - o - crat - ic Power

So lend a hand for De - moc - ra - cy Right now has come the hour Now be it known that our hearts are a - wake To Free-dom's call, ring-ing clear thru the land. Ask-ing that we for her lib-er - ties sake

rit

Shall pledge our all in a firm stand Swat the Bug-a - boo, Au - to - crat - ic

Power; Let us be true to the call of the hour, Swat the Bug-a - boo

Free-dom stirs a new Wake to the call of the Red White, and Blue! Now, swat the Bug-a - boo Au - to - crat - ic Power; Let us be true to the call of the hour

Swat the Bug-a - boo Free-dom stirs a - new Wake to the call of the Red, White and Blue.

WHAT A BUGABOO IS, TO US!

To us a Bugaboo is a serious thing to contend with.
Whenever an unrighteous power asserted itself an obstacle in the path of life, Dad would say,

"That's a Bugaboo! Swat it! Conquer it! or it will conquer you."

With this idea (our understanding of what a Bugaboo is) this song is respectfully submitted.

GRAY-LIEVINNE.
